Regular Rank Faculty Position
Director of Clinical Education
Division of Physical Therapy, Duke University

The Doctor of Physical Therapy Division (DPT) seeks a Director of Clinical Education (DCE) to lead our clinical education initiatives at Duke University. The optimal candidate will have a terminal academic degree (i.e., PhD, EdD, DSc, or ScD), will have interests in innovative clinical education-based teaching methods (strategies), and has vision to navigate the dynamic world of clinical education.

The Division of Physical Therapy at Duke University is the birthplace of STEPS™ and has a storied history of educational excellence both in and outside the classroom. Candidates must demonstrate interests in the scholarship of education as well as collaboration with our world-renown faculty. Educational collaboration and support is available through Duke AHEAD, an organization of Duke Health Professions Educators.

Qualified applicants must be eligible for licensure as a physical therapist in the state of North Carolina. The search committee seeks applicants from a diverse pool of candidates with the following additional qualifications or attributes:

1. Experience in, and a commitment to, excellence clinical education,
2. Experience working with diverse patient, clinical, and student populations,
3. History of continued scholarly output and contributions in the area of the candidate’s expertise,
4. An excellent communicator and innovative thinker,
5. An educator who nurtures learning in a diversity rich environment,
6. Organizational and program development skills.

The position is a 12-month core faculty appointment with salary and rank commensurate with qualification and experience. Candidates selected for an interview will be asked to prepare a 5-year plan that outlines the candidate’s personal educational, research and services milestones. All interested candidates should send (in confidence) a cover letter and curriculum vitae by December 1, 2016 including contact information for three references by email to:
